

International: Uganda and Malawi sign MOU concerning ICT cybersecurity

DG dataguidance.com/news/international-uganda-and-malawi-sign-mou-concerning-ict

13 February 2017

13 February 2017

CybersecurityE-commerce

The Ministry of Information Communication Technology ('ICT') and National Guidance of Uganda signed, on 10 February 2017, a Memorandum of Understanding ('MOU') with the Ministry of ICT of Malawi. The MOU covers six areas of cooperation, including electronic government, policy and regulation, cybersecurity as well as research and innovation. The purpose of cooperation between the two countries is to progress data and information security and build capacity in policy and regulation.

You can read the press release here.